honour of the 10th International its all good day and McMillan Cancer Centre - Sunday October 22nd, 2017

The pureheartcenter.com was conceived because we saw a need for proper education in the field of personal Spiritual growth for most people. We have a vision for this center to move into a "brick and mortar" building where people can meet, share ideas, and get together to uplift each other. This is going to cost us some money, so we are offering a subscription to the center to offset the costs, and to help fund the PureHeart Foundation. As a full blown member you will have access to everything that we are doing from new meditations, to classes and workshops. As a member, a lot of these classes will be free, or given at a greatly reduced rate.
