

Question for experiment

I want to ask you: From what you know of me, think of 8 things that you would pack for me, or insist that I have with me, or at any of my destinations. These 8 things are to be based on what you know about me. These things can be anything no matter how big or small. I want you to write down the thing and a brief description of why you picked that particular item.

Write your answers in any editor you wish and email them to me at barbapplestudios@gmail.com, or just write them straight into an email.

Thank you

For example:

1. Socks: Because I always see him in colorful weird looking socks
2. A piano: Because I know he plays piano
3. A pack of tissues: Because he is constantly blowing his nose

Comments:

Post any related comments here. This is anything you want to say about the exercise, and I will answer any questions as soon as I can.

I would like you to take the exercise seriously because it is going into my new book. I will contact you for more information if I need it once the exercise is completed.
