PureHeart Method

Here are 5 things you need to do in order to allow The PureHeart Method to work for you.

- 1. Have an open mind. Always keep your mind open, because it is the only way that information can come into it.
- 2. Put everything you think you know about the process away for now. Allow yourself a fresh outlook and new perspectives will be able to take hold.
- 3. Have a strong desire to learn new concepts and find ways to make the concepts that you are comfortable with work.
- 4. Understand that you can use those ideas that work and disregard those that do not to maximize your ability to allow the program to work.
- 5. Know that you have the answers and be open to having that part of you reactivated.

Here is what you will learn with the PureHeart Method:

- 1. It is a lot easier than you think.
- 2. What it means to think.
- 3. How to determine where the messages are coming from and how to receive them more effectively.
- 4. What purpose the Ego and the Will have in the whole process.
- 5. Fast and effective techniques to make the most of your meditation process.
- 6. How to set yourself up for success.
- 7. Why writing is so important to the process.
- 8. The one thing that will clear most of your blocks immediately.

The beliefs:

I believe that connecting with Spirit is difficult and only for people that have trained for years and years.

When I connect with Spiritual beings, I run the risk of evil or bad Spirits coming through.

I am never sure that the messages I get are from Spirit or not.

How do I know that it isn't my Ego.

How do I know that the information that I get isn't what I WANT to hear.

It is impossible to get information for myself.
